

AUXOTC

Air Observer Training Course

*“If you’ve always wanted to fly, now you can as an Observer with Coast Guard Auxiliary Aviation.
No aviation experience required - full training provided.”*

AUXOTC is held at Livermore Airport in the terminal building for evening courses, hanger 154 or Ahart Aviation when all-day training is held. At all times it is requested students brown bag lunch and remain at the training facility. Students are expected to be on time and arrive one half hour before class begins.

Course Agenda, 20 June 2009 0900 (0830) - 1500

Livermore Airport, Hanger 154

Uniform of the day: Flight suit/Tropical/ Civvies

All personnel arrive at the terminal building for transportation to training hanger.

Personnel flying in, park on ramp and await transportation as above.

Time	Course	Instructor
0900	Welcome: AuxAir Briefing	Leo Gross Ron Darcey
0920-1200	Coast Guard Sector Communications. Qualification as applicable per student (Check List)	Training Team Ron Darcey Skip Morford Leo Gross Dennis Caponigro* John Theilen*
200 – 1230	LUNCH ON AIRPORT
1230 – 1400	Communications cont:	Training Team
1400 - 1500	Aircraft Familiarization; Those who have already completed may depart.	AuxAircraft Facilities: AA-1 Yankee Luscombe 8E

* Personnel acting as Sector San Francisco – Communications exercise.